

NASHVILLE UNION.

To Union Men Everywhere.

Friends, we have fairly commenced the publication of an unconditional Union journal in Nashville, and so far as it has been possible for us to have access to the post-offices of Tennessee, it has been a wonderful triumph, and has won the hearty approval of the people. But the mails are at present confined to a narrow limit, and consequently our patronage cannot grow rapidly south of the city of Nashville. We therefore ask all who feel a desire to have a loyal newspaper published in this city—one which will bring to light hundreds of crimes and outrages committed by the rebels during their ascendancy over us, and which the guilty authors believed would never be brought to light—to come up immediately and sustain us, by sending in subscriptions and advertising. It will be of infinite importance to the Union cause in this State to have an uncompromising Union journal published at the capital of the State. The task of conducting such a newspaper will be a most arduous and responsible one. But we have laid our hand to the plough, and we wish to do our work well and honorably. Will not our Union friends in all parts of the county pour in their subscriptions? Strike while the iron is hot! Let us keep the flag of the Union, of law and order, streaming defiantly in the very face of the enemy, as he sullenly retires to the Gulf.

Our terms are for the DAILY UNION: One copy $5, and $7 for clubs of 20 copies. When we get five hundred subscribers we will begin the publication of a tri-weekly at $5 for one copy, and $4 for clubs of 20 copies. When one thousand names are obtained we will publish a weekly at $3 for one copy, and $2 for clubs of 20 copies.

Particular Notice.

Correspondents will confer a great favor on us by leaving their communications for inspection at our leisure. We have no time to hear communications read over by their authors. We are always glad to hear from any one who has a fact to impart or a thought to suggest, and hope to hear often from those who can contribute to the Union information.

Send This.

We commend this article of the Constitution to those rebels who contend for the sovereignty of a State in all things.

"This Constitution and the laws of the United States which shall be made in pursuance thereof, shall be the supreme Law of the Land; and the Judges in every State shall be bound thereby, ANYTHING IN THE CONSTITUTION AND LAWS OF ANY STATE TO THE CONTRARY NOTWITHSTANDING." Federal Constitution, Art. VI, sec. 2.

Many of these blockheads who are forever blabbing about the Constitution, don't know that there is such a clause in it.

Plumb High Like Preaching.

The Fortress Monroe correspondent of the Philadelphia Press says:

There is a good story going the rounds here concerning a certain general, who is pious enough in creed, but on certain occasions, when his "dander" is up, can do full justice to his feelings by "giving them mouth."—When the Merrimac came down, the general was all motion; he was highly excited, and now and then he heaved his feelings by certain forcible ejaculations. A contraband, who heard him, gives a very good description of how the white haired old man moved about in the midst of the storm of shot and shells. "By golly, boss," said he, "but de way dat old massa gin'ral moved about dat day war a caution. He went dis way and dat way; he went hea' and he went dar; but to hea' hea' de old massa gin'ral swar! Bos it's de solemn truf dat de way de old gin'ral swar was plumb high like preachin'!"

SOUTHERN ACCOUNT OF THE BATTLE OF PETERSBURG.—The Richmond papers of Saturday claim that the Confederates took 6,000 prisoners at the battle of Petersburg. Landing. They also state that John G. Breckinridge distinguished himself on the battle field by his bravery.

General Fremont and another officer of the Federal army, who were taken prisoners, were sent to Richmond where they have arrived.

Jeff. Davis had sent a message to the Confederate Congress formally announcing the death of General A. Sidney Johnston, and paying a warm tribute to his memory.

Gen. Johnston, it is stated, was struck during the battle in the thigh, with a Minnie ball, but continued on in the fight, and finally, from the loss of blood, fell from his horse and soon expired.

The Confederates admit a loss of 3,000 in killed and wounded, and about 200 prisoners. Both Richmond and Norfolk, it is stated, were illuminated on Friday night.

BOARD WANTED.—By two young gentlemen in a private family where there are no other boarders. Address, stating terms or giving address, H. H. B. April 19, 31* Drawer 88 P. O.

Home's Harmony.
The lark may sing her sweetest song,
As rising from the waking dawn,
On soaring wings she glides along,
To welcome the rising morn.
Her sweetest song is naught to me,
Compared to home's sweet harmony.

Deep in the woods the nightingale,
At midnight hour may tune her lay,
May pour upon the listening vale
Her lowliest stream of melody:
Lovely midnight lay may be,
But lovelier home's sweet harmony.

Sweet are the songsters of the spring,
And of the summer's sunny days,
And autumn's feathered warblers sing
In rapturous strains their sweetest lays:
Lovely the song of bower and tree,
But lovelier home's sweet melody.

But oh, what cheers the winter night,
When all around is dark and gloom,
When feathered songsters take their flight
Or fill a gloomy little tomb?
Tis at each hour as these that we
Prize most our home's sweet harmony.

Oh, when dark clouds above us lower,
And life's dear winter over us comes,
Tis then we feel your magic power,
Ye songsters of our hearts and homes:
For soon the lowering clouds do flee
From our dear home's sweet harmony.
